Sing beautiful harmonies gain self-confidence, and delight in what we can create together. This is a "mistake-free" zone, for all levels of singers - we sing for the sheer fun of it!

Joe Keyes and the Late Bloomer Band

Joe Keyes is equal parts front man, poet and band conductor. The Freehold, NJ, native found his orchestra in late 2009 in The Late Bloomer Band, a concoction of Baltimore-area musicians. The band takes audiences back to the days of Miles Davis and early P-Funk, when big bands were led by strong individuals. The band's brand of live improvisation and musical sophistication presents a different experience at every show. While Keyes draws inspiration from musical mentors Gil Scott-Heron, Joe Bowie, and Sun Ra, The Late Bloomer Band brings a modern interpretation to funk, jazz, rock and a variety of other genres. The Late Bloomer Band's members, in their mid-20s, help keep 54-year-old Keyes young and come from locally established bands. Having grown together musically, the band's polished tightness has landed collaborations with George Clinton and members of Parliament/Funkadelic.

David and Sophie Buskin, plus Laura Zucker
7:00 PM Father/daughter duo David Buskin and Sophie Buskin are delighting audiences up and down the East Coast with their mix of familiar and new songs. David Buskin has been writing and performing music his entire life, most recently as part of the comical "geezer trio," Modern Man, which has been described as filling the void between the Three Tenors and the Three Stooges. He also comprised half of the legendary folk/rock duo Buskin & Batteau, called by the Washington Post "an irresistible amalgam of melodic, sensual pop, folkie grit and killer wit." He is now touring with his daughter, a talented singer/songwriter and budding guitarist who has performed on the Buskin and Batteau album "Love Remembered, Love Forgot," among others. Singer-songwriter Laura Zucker a San Francisco-based lawyer turned who wins over audiences with a hard-won perspective and a positive spin. The powerful imagery of her songs and stories ring so true you might think she's read your diary - and you'll find yourself humming her infectious melodies for days to come. She's a two-time finalist in the prestigious Kerrville Folk Festival New Folk competition in Texas, a 2014 Falcon Ridge Folk Festival Emerging Artist and has received numerous accolades and awards from organizations around the world.
