What is a member-sponsored event?

These events are...

- Sponsored by a current BFMS member.
- Of a type that generally meets the definition of a "folkie" event (e.g. concerts, workshops)
- Sponsors agree to promote the Baltimore Folk Music Society at their event.

If you are sponsoring an upcoming event, and would like to see it listed in the BFMS newsletter, please e-mail event information to the newsletter editor as early as practical, but no later than the 10th of the month before publication.

Most listings should provide location, admission, end time, and contact information. Other appropriate details include the style of performance or structure of the program, and the names, instruments, and home cities of performers.

We prefer plain text in the body of an e-mail, rather than HTML-formatted text or attached documents. Use a subject that includes the word "listing" and e-mail to newsletter@bfms.org. For updates, highlight all changes.
